

EasyBuild Stakeholder Pension Scheme

Nomination Form

If you die before you take your pension, you can leave the money to someone else. You need to let us know who that is by completing this form and returning it to us. You should note however, that while the Scheme Administrator will give every consideration to your wishes, your nomination is not legally binding on the Scheme Administrator.

Payments are made directly to your nominated recipients without having to wait for probate (the right to deal with a deceased person's affairs). You can change your mind about who you want to leave your money to as many times as you like but please make sure you sign and date a new form and return it to us each time. Alternatively, you can change your nomination quickly using your online account. Log on at <https://myproducts.bandce.co.uk> (you can activate here if you haven't done so). Please note this form is only for B&CE's EasyBuild and you will need a different form for each of the products you hold with us.
